

BY: CLEMENT PHIRI

IT'S A PILLAR OF THE WORLD

It's a pillar development of the World
Our bodies get healthy from the fruits, which you produce
The World treasury, it erupts from you
The hidden treasury from the soil, depends on you
The crucial work, which you play in the World, it amazes us
Indeed, it's a pillar of the World.

Even African doctors, they are there because of you
Roots, leaves and your barks, it produce herbals
You are a source of foreign currency
The green pigments that you are, it beautifies the World
You are a controller of abusive wind and floods
The construction works, depends on you
Indeed, you build the World
It's a pillar of the World

You are rain attractive
In right time, we receive it because of you
The oxygen, which you supply, it gives us life
You are indeed natural food producer
The manure from your leaves, it makes us to get positive results from our yields
It's a pillar of the World

How painful and shameful, to those who ill-treat you?
The charcoal burner, they just burn you in careless way
The farmers, they deforestation you for farm opening without replacement
The hunters, they just bushfire to let you on bare ground
Don't they know that, you are a pillar of the World
How World look like without you?
Punishment must follow them

Lets conserve, care and reserve trees
Avoid deforestation instead, lets do afforestation
Lets plant more than ten trees, when one is cutting down, for future use
Because trees it's a pillar of the World